

Sermon Follow-up | May 24, 2020

21 Letters — Paul's Priorities: Waiting Well

Focus Passage: 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18

Additional Context for Scripture Reading: 1 Thessalonians

Corollary Scripture: 2 Thessalonians 1 – 3

Other Passages Referenced: Hebrews 2:10; Revelation 21:1-4

Sermon Recap: The Christians in Thessalonica were feeling loss and grief. Friends, loved ones, and members of their community had died, and they were grieving those losses. In his letter to the Thessalonians, the Apostle Paul said Christians grieve, but we don't grieve like people who haven't placed their hope in Christ. Jesus knew what it meant to experience grief and loss. Jesus died and rose again so that we might rise from the dead with Him! Jesus not only died for us, but He is coming back for us! So, in your loss and grief, don't lose hope! Don't lose hope because we know how the story ends!

Study Helps

- Hope: "Hope" in the Bible does not have the idea of "wishful thinking" that English speakers are accustomed to. "Hope" is associated with waiting in certainty for God to complete what He has promised. In most cases where we see the verb "hope" we could substitute the verb "wait."
- Trumpet of God: "It could herald a great event or issue a warning to the people (1 Sam 13:3; Jer 4:5). It was often used in military settings (Josh 6:4–5; Judg 6:34; Neh 4:19–20; cf. 1 Cor 14:8)<sup>1</sup>
- "In both the OT and NT, as well as in wider Jewish and Graeco-Roman literature, 'sleep' serves as a euphemism for death (e.g., Gen 47:30; Psa 13:3; John 11:11–13; Acts 13:36)."<sup>2</sup>

2. In 1 Thes 4:18, Paul transitions from talking about grief to talking about encouragement. With what words are we to encourage one another?

1. During this time of losses, has the Holy Spirit shown you anything you are holding too closely? ... Anything you are not holding closely enough?
2. Is there anything you’re losing hope about during this season of life? Does the distinction between “wishing” and “waiting” make a difference in your hope?
3. In your times of grieving, how do you pivot from the pain of the moment to the hope that comes from knowing how the story ends?
4. Do you know a Christian that is grieving that you can encourage as Paul commands in 1 Thessalonians 4:18?
