SERMON

The Torah — In the Wilderness

Focus Passage: Numbers 13:17–33

Additional Context: Numbers 1:1; 13:1–33

Other Passages Referenced: Matthew 4; John 3:14–15; 6:31–59

Corollary Scripture – Deuteronomy 8:1–5

Sermon Recap: In the Hebrew Scriptures, The Book of Numbers was originally titled, “In the Wilderness.” It describes God’s people following Him in the wilderness. “Numbers” refers to two important censuses described in the book (Num 1:2; 26:2). Those censuses roughly divide the book in two—Chapters 1–25 and 26–36. Numbers illustrates that disobedience to God brings death, but God is not deterred by our disobedience. Signs such as unhealthy cravings, grumbling, and quarreling can help us detect disobedience. Seeing Jesus at the center of Numbers means we don’t look to our doubts about the future, our dubious vision of the past, or the difficulty of the present. Instead we look to Jesus, because “as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life” (John 3:14–15).

Notable Quotes from the Sermon:

- “The question is not, ‘Will God accomplish His purposes?’ The question is, ‘Will God accomplish His purposes through me [or will I disqualify myself so that He uses someone else]?’”
- “The death is slow but don’t let the disobedience deceive you. Disobedience always brings death.”

1. In response to the sermon, will you examine your own life to detect unhealthy cravings, giving bad reports in spite of God's goodness, grumbling, or quarreling? ... If you detect these signs of disobedience, what will you do this week to repent and look to Jesus lifted up in obedience to the Father?
2. What do you believe God's Spirit is saying to you specifically about living by His word that we have been listening to and learning from? Will you make a specific effort to live by His word by filling in the blank of this statement? — "With the Holy Spirit's help, I will _____ to live by God's word in the coming week."
3. "With the Holy Spirit's help, I will let _____ (person's name) know what I am hearing and learning from God's word."
